PCIA MICROWAVE CLEARINGHOUSE SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT TO THE COMMISSION

The PCIA Microwave Clearinghouse (the "Clearinghouse") hereby submits its semi-annual report on its progress implementing the Federal Communications Commission's (the "Commission") microwave relocation cost sharing plan.¹

Clearinghouse Operations Since February 1, 2004

Since February 1, 2004, the Clearinghouse has registered 24 additional transmitter links from PCS licensees, for a total of 3,556 links registered since the Clearinghouse began its operation. In addition, in the past six month period, the Clearinghouse has received additional PCN's for 67,588 base stations, for a total of 510,326 PCN base station received to date. Since operation began, the Clearinghouse has identified 12,983 cost-sharing obligations, requiring monies to be paid to parties who relocated those microwave links.

The Clearinghouse Board of Directors and the Technical Working Group have met on two separate occasions during the past six months. A primary focus has been preparing the Clearinghouse for sunset of the Commission's cost-sharing rules. The current Clearinghouse Board of Directors is comprised of representatives from the following companies: AT&T, Sprint PCS, Cingular Wireless, T-Mobile, Edge Wireless, Cricket Communications (Leap), Qwest Wireless, UTAM, and Verizon.
